

i wish you would not pass a law that lets anyone call your home to sollicite business when i signed up for the telephone protection it helped greatly i now get only calls from people i actually need to talk with and only have the messages on my machine i need to hear please do not take the peace of no phone ringing away